From the East... Wor. Michael J. Caro

One month down and the year is off to a great start. I am seeing more of our brothers in the Thursday night classes and I really enjoying refreshing myself on our catechisms and improving our floor work for when we bring a new candidate through the degrees. Please consider joining us in preparation for what may be the youngest candidate we have ever had.

Additionally, wish George Washington a Happy Birthday this month. He was a great example of what we should aspire to be as men and Masons.

Finally, It looks like we will have a MM catechism being presented in February and ballot on a new petition. I hope you will be there for both.

FROM THE SECRETARY'S UNDERGROUND STORAGE OF MEANINGFUL FACTS
.....Rt. Wor. Bob Carpenter

Freemasonry helps us sharpen our focus and look for those things of importance, of meaning and worth, and which will add to, rather than detract from, a meaningful life's experience. God's handiwork is all around us and evident to the discerning eye, not only in nature but in the lives and times of our brethren and ourselves. The author and Freemason, the Reverend Joseph Fort Newton reminds us that a man is truly a Mason "when he can look into something beyond mud and into the face of the most forlorn fellow mortal and see something beyond sin".

With his first steps as an Entered Apprentice, our candidate is instructed to look for the divine in the ordinary, the majesty in the commonplace, and the hand of God in all our undertakings and endeavors. This is the benefit of entering upon the Masonic journey and receiving instruction and counsel.

I would hope that you find your Masonry not only in the degrees and the lodges and meetings, but also, in your everyday encounters and with all with whom you come in contact. Just as importantly, I would hope that others will find their Masonry in you – your attitude, your humility, and your grace and kindness.

Of course, everyone is entitled to have a bad day and miss the mark once in a while. That is when you need a nudge from a loved one: "Hey chump, don't miss the rainbow out there." What you see depends on what you are looking for.

My thanks to Ill. Ronald Seale, 33°, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite Southern Jurisdiction, for his thoughts.

Remember to come out and support your officers. Our (Your) officers need you in attendance at our Stated Meetings. Let them show you how your Lodge is progressing and how much your attendance is meaningful to them. Come to the Stated Meetings and renew friendships, maybe some you have forgotten. Let us welcome you to Tuckahoe Lodge No. 347, as we progress through our 96th year. Soon it will be 100 and I know you will want to be in Lodge for that momentous occasion. Remember, it will only happen once. As Walter Cronkite used to say, "What kind of day was it? A day like all days. Filled with those events that alter and illuminate our times. And YOU were there."

DOES YOUR DUES CARD SAY 2019?
