FROM THE EAST: ONE LAST TIME! Barry C. Faison, Worshipful Master

Here it is, December again and the end of another year. Where has the time gone? It seems like only yesterday that we were planning for last year end. Since this is December, I would like to take this opportunity to make a few observations and remembrances about the past year.

To start off, I want to again thank the officers and the brethren of the Lodge for another year of active participation, valuable suggestions, enthusiastic support, and regular encouragement. I could not have made it through the past year without your assistance and I think that is one of the most important lessons I have learned while being in the East – there are always others that will gladly help you if you will only ask them. I have definitely enjoyed being in the East more this year because the ritual became easier and when I did need assistance; you willingly came to my aid. I am grateful for those who made sure that the work of the Lodge continued during my absences this year, both planned and unplanned.

I will remember 2010 was a very productive year. We received a number of petitions and were able to lead a good group of candidates through the degrees. One of the significant characteristics of the Class of 2010 is their age. Many of them are younger and I believe that if we can involve them in the work of the craft, they will help us continue to grow our membership and our participation levels. Many of our new Master Masons are regularly attending the Thursday-night classes, working on the catechisms, and participating in the degree practices in various roles. Not only are they learning the ritual, but they are involved. We need to make sure we continue to keep them involved and encourage them, and help them find their place of service in the fraternity.

December will again be an important month for Tuckahoe Lodge. We will elect new officers for many of our Lodge leadership positions, conduct a formal public officer installation ceremony, and hear a reading of the initial Edicts and other guidance from the new Grand Master of Masons in Virginia. We also have our second annual public memorial service developed by Wor. Doug Messimer. During this program, we will take time to remember all our deceased brethren, but especially those brethren who have passed to the Celestial Lodge above during the past year. Again this year we have sent a personal invitation to each of our widows inviting them to attend the dinner and this program.

I want to remind you about our list of Sick & Distressed and those brethren who do not attend Lodge. The Lodge website committee continues to update the information we have about our sick and distressed on the Lodge website. Please remember them with your prayers, cards, email, and phone calls. If you need a current address or phone number for one of the Brethren, please let me know. Also Brethren, when you come to the December stated, please bring a can of food or other non-perishable item. I would like to see the Lodge have another large delivery for the Central Virginia Food Bank to help them with their year-end needs.

Finally Brethren, I want to wish you a happy and joyous holiday season. Be as generous as you can with your time, money, and other resources. Demonstrate the true nature of Freemasonry to all and reflect our new Grand Master's theme – "Make A Difference Every Day".

The Secretary's Corner: Rt. Wor. Robert W. Carpenter, Jr.

Judge your success not by what you get, but by what you had to give up in order to get it.

Brethren, by the time you receive this Bulletin, you should be receiving your dues notice. Please help your Lodge by fulfilling your monetary obligation. Your dues are due and payable on January 1st for Masonic Year 2011. Please note that the dues are $83. For those members 70 years of age or older, the dues are $72.

December is our annual meeting. A time for every brother to come together and thank our officers who have toiled so hard for the past year to keep our Lodge a place where every brother is welcome; a place where every brother can find friendship and brotherly affection; a place of learning; a place of teaching; a place where we can all assemble and know that Freemasonry will always be there to help us, guide us, and above all, to develop our character and make us better men.

Masonic labor is purely a labor of love. He who seeks to draw Masonic wages in gold and silver will be disappointed. The wages of a Mason are earned and paid in their dealing with one another. Sympathy begets sympathy, kindness begets kindness, helpfulness – and these are the wages of a Mason.

Your officers need your attendance to fulfill the purpose of Masonry. Sympathy, kindness, helpfulness, and many other traits abound within the walls of Tuckahoe Lodge. These traits cannot get out into the world and be spread abroad unless you make it happen. Let your light so shine among men that they may see your good works. Spread and communicate light and instruction, not only to your brethren but to the world. Remember the dignity and high importance of Masonry and practice out of the Lodge, that which is taught in it.

In December we also welcome a new slate of officers to guide the Lodge for the next Masonic year. Come out to the meeting and show your support. Attend the December Stated and the installation of your officers. Come see Masonry at work. Come be a part of the greatest fraternity the world has ever known. By so doing, you will start the year out right and be helping to "Make a Difference Every Day".
